About Le Confrérie de la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs

Le Confrérie de la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs is the world's oldest, largest and most prestigious food and wine society with over 25,000 members in 70 countries. The United States is home to over 125 chapters and 6,000 members.

Roughly translated as “guild of roasters,” la Chaîne's roots reach back to 1248 when King Louis IX of France established a “Guild of Goose Roasters” to prepare food for the crown & royalty. In 1950 the modern Chaîne was founded in Paris and dedicated to honoring the skills and practices of the masters of the culinary arts, the individuals who craft fine libations and the growers & purveyors of all form of gastronomical ingredients. Important U.S. Chaîne programs include the annual international Young Chefs and Young Sommeliers competitions and the Chaîne Foundation supporting culinary education and charitable giving.
